CHURCH AT THE MILL

INTRODUCTION

At the opening of Acts 1, verse 8 tells us of Jesus' final sentence spoken to his followers before ascending into heaven. His words were a message of "go and tell," not a message of "come and see." We are meant to be witnesses of the gospel and God's goodness on this earth. We are made to give glory to His name. Luke 10:29-37 describes the love of a Samaritan man toward a Jew, who would have been a great enemy to him. That kind of perfect love is the love that motivated Jesus to die for us to pay for all our sins and restored relationship with the Father. As those walking with Jesus, we will overcome the enemy through the blood of Jesus Christ and the word of our testimony. You do not have to preach the Bible from a stage or have an official ministry title in order to be a good neighbor. You do not have to be polished and a finished work to be used by Jesus; he simply needs our "yes" on the table. We pray that Jesus motivates you with His love for your neighbors and that you'll see your neighbors as fellow image bearers.

MINISTRY INFORMATION

CENTRAL

— ADULT/FAMILY MINISTRIES —

English Crossing works to teach English as a second language while also using the time as a platform to share the gospel with internationals. As a faith-based ministry, they exist to build trusting, long-term relationships with local internationals and disciple them with the gospel of Jesus Christ. With thousands of international neighbors here in the Upstate, there are many ways you can be on mission with English Crossing.

Ethnic Outreach is a ministry that reaches the nations in our local community. This ministry includes visiting places such as restaurants and the Camp Croft area to build relationships with the people of the different ethnic groups and religious beliefs in order to serve and share the gospel. Outreach events and Bible studies are utilized as tools to build those relationships and to learn more about the people.

EVANS TRAINING CENTER
Prodigals Restored

Evans Training Center (ETC) is a 40-week residential, faith-based program for men seeking lasting transformation through Christ. It's a regeneration ministry—not just a fresh start, but a new life. It is led by ordained ministers and staffed mostly by former addicts who've found freedom in Jesus.

FACT AT THE MILL
foster & adoption care team
